FACT SHEET United Kingdom

LOCATION

The United Kingdom (“U.K.”) comprises England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales and is one of the 15 members of the European Union. London is one of the world’s leading centres for banking, insurance and other financial services. Recently, the U.K. has been made more accessible by the opening of the Channel Rail which provides frequent train services to Paris and Brussels.

LAW & TAX

British common law applies. The U.K. has signed double taxation treaties with 100 countries and thus enjoys the most extensive double tax network in the world. Despite the fact that the U.K. is by no means a low tax country, U.K. companies can be used effectively and advantageously in a tax planning structure.

CORPORATE REQUIREMENTS

(1) Each Private Company must have:

- At least one director, can be corporate director or an individual and can be resident or non-resident;
- At least one shareholder, can be a corporate shareholder or an individual and can be resident or non-resident;
- A company secretary, can be corporate secretary or an individual and can be resident or non-resident;
- Companies must appoint an auditor and audited accounts must be filed with the Companies Registry within 9 months of the financial year end.

(2) Limited Liability Partnership:
